

Helsinki University of Technology- TKK

- Leading engineering university in Finland with 40 % market share in MSc and 60 % in DSc education
- Internationally known for its education and research in all fields of forest products technology
- High quality research groups in polymer chemistry and other fields close to pulp and paper
- Leading university in nanotechnology in Finland
- New high quality infrastructure for micro and nanotechnology research
- Close relationships with industry in all fields of engineering education and research
- Research focus in the areas of National Strategic Centers for Science, Technology and Innovation
- Excellent location in Otaniemi campus